

BYLAW NO. 10/87

A BYLAW TO CLASSIFY, LICENSE, REGULATE AND

GOVERN TRANSIENT TRADERS

SEP 02 1987

The council of the Rural Municipality of Lumsden No. 189, in the province of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

1. In this bylaw the expression "transient trader" shall have the meaning ascribed to it by The Rural Municipality Act, as the same may be from time to time amended or substituted.
2. No person shall carry on the business of a transient trader within the municipality unless he possesses a valid and subsisting licence for that purpose issued in accordance with the provisions of this bylaw.
3. The administrator of the municipality is hereby authorized to issue a transient trader's licence to any person carrying on business in the municipality:
  - (a) who offers to provide services for a price or offers goods or merchandise for sale by retail or by auction, or solicits any person who is not a wholesale or retail dealer for orders for future services for a price or the future delivery of goods or merchandise; and
  - (b) who is not required to be licenced under The Direct Sellers Act; and
  - (c) who is not assessable by the municipality for the purposes of business taxation in respect of that business; and
  - (d) who makes application for such licence stating specifically the nature of his business in the municipality; and
  - (e) who has complied with The Auctioneers Act if the same applies or may apply in respect of the licence for which he has made application under this bylaw; and
  - (f) who tenders with his application the proper licence fee as herein provided for:
4. Subject to the right of the council to suspend or revoke the same as provided by The Rural Municipality Act every licence issued hereunder shall remain in force and effect until and including the thirty-first day of December of the year of issue.
5. the fee payable for a licence under this bylaw shall be ten dollars.
6. Every licence issued hereunder shall specifically state the kinds of services, goods or merchandise which the licensee is authorized to offer for sale or take orders for as the case may be and whether, in the case of goods or merchandise, he may offer the same for sale by retail or by public auction or both. Such licence shall also state the restriction as set forth in Section 7 hereof.

7. No person to whom a licence is issued under this bylaw shall offer for sale services, goods or merchandise, or solicit orders for future services or the future delivery of goods or merchandise within the municipality:

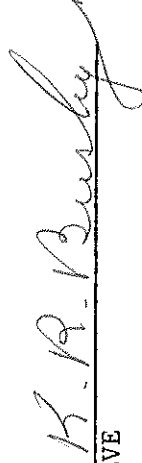

- (a) other than of a kind or kinds described in the license; or
- (b) by a method except as authorized therein; or
- (c) at any time or during any period when shops within the municipality offering for sale or taking orders for similar

- i) services or future services
- ii) goods or merchandise

are required by bylaw to be and remain closed.

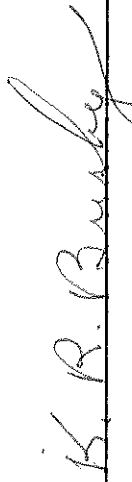

8. Every person licenced under this bylaw shall at all reasonable times, upon request of the administrator, municipal or licence inspector, or any peace officer, produce such licence for inspection purposes.

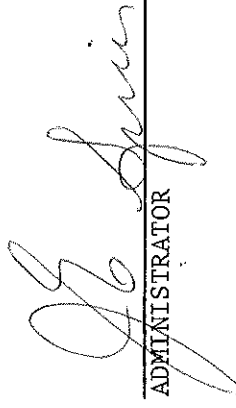

9. Any person who violates any provision of this bylaw is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to the penalties as provided in the general penalty bylaw of the municipality.
